Letter to Cornelia Fluke concerning her book, Thief Lord

Dear J. K. Rowling:

I really owe you one, without your books I never would have been able to read anything with humans as the main characters.

See, everything started that fateful day when I opened Harry Potter and the Sorcerer's Stone.

It was just your average, cruddy day, when I finished a book I was reading and decided to try out one of your books, the minute I opened the book, I was, like, "WOW," everything had so much detail, suspense, action, and amazingness! When Harry met Norbert, I was cracking up inside, and when Hagrid came to get Harry, and gave Dudley a pig's tail, I was, like, "OOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHH," I was so happy!

When I finished it and started Harry Potter and the Chamber of Secrets, I felt like I had been run over by a unicorn, or had some firewhiskey, or some butterbeer, or some various wizarding confection!!

Your books have really changed me.

Sincerely,

Johnny R. C. Davis
