

ohiocenterforthebook.org

Center for the

BOOK
at Cleveland Public Library

Ohio Center for the Book Scholar-in-Residence Application

Feel free to use the back or second sheet if you need more space.

Name: _____ Date: _____

Address: _____

Email: _____ Website: _____

Phone: _____ (Please indicate: home work cell)

Guidelines for the Scholar-In-Residence at the Ohio Center for the Book @ Cleveland Public Library:

- Applicants for the position of OCFB Scholar-In-Residence must submit a resume or CV, an OCFB Scholar-In-Residence Application form with a 500 word statement of purpose, and two letters of recommendation.
- The Manager of the OCFB, a CPL administrator, a representative of the State Library of Ohio, and a representative of the Ohioana Library Association will serve as application reviewers.
- Programming by the Scholar-In-Residence at the Ohio Center for the Book @ Cleveland Public Library would need to be conducted Monday through Saturday, 10:00 am to 6:00 pm on the Main campus.
- Programming by the Scholar-In-Residence at the Ohio Center for the Book @ Cleveland Public Library at CPL Branches would extend the time for programming to 7:00 pm.
- The programming by the Scholar-In-Residence at the Ohio Center for the Book @ Cleveland Public Library would have limited opportunity for evening programming unless an outside venue was used, such as the Happy Dog, Phoenix Coffee Shop, Market Garden Brewery, or similar location.
- Programming must be free and open to the public.

Position Requirements for the Scholar-In-Residence at the Ohio Center for the Book @ Cleveland Public Library:

- The Scholar-In-Residence will support, plan, and promote programming related to OCFB initiatives such as Get Graphic!, Cleveland Public Poetry, Poetry Out Loud, It's Time to Talk, the Mike Curtis Collection of Superman Memorabilia, Octavofest, Read Ohio, the Anisfield-Wolf Book Awards, the National Book Festival, Choose to Read Ohio, or other related programs, as determined in partnership with the Manager of the Ohio Center for the Book.

Ohio Center for the Book Scholar-in-Residence Application

- The Scholar-In-Residence will support, plan, and promote related OCFB programming for not less than 150 hours. These hours will be broken down into 120 hours of patron engagement and 30 hours of preparation and promotion.
- The Scholar-In-Residence will be responsible for an end-of-project summary.

Briefly tell us why you would like to be considered for this residency. _____

Briefly tell us what type of activities you would like to perform for this residency.

What teaching experience do you have? _____

For more information or questions, contact:

Amy E. Dawson
Manager, Literature Department &
Ohio Center for the Book
Cleveland Public Library
325 Superior Ave.
Cleveland, Ohio 44114
(216)902-4947
amy.dawson@cpl.org
<http://www.ohiocenterforthebook.org/>
www.cpl.org

