November is National Novel Writing Month (NaNoWriMo). It's a time when people around the world commit to writing 50,000 words towards the goal of writing a novel — in 30 days! Now in its 21st year, NaNoWriMo challenges participants to write a new/original work between 12:00 a.m. November 1 and 11:59 p.m. November 30. Are you prepared to take the challenge?

Prep for National Novel Writing Month 2019

Learn the rules for NaNoWriMo and gather resources and tips created to inspire and motivate you during the 30-day writing challenge. Attendees will receive (while supply lasts) a writing survival kit to help them stay inspired and motivated to the very end. There will also be a raffle to win a copy of Nancy Christie's Rut-Busting Book for Writers.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 26

4:30–5:30 p.m.

Cleveland Public Library, Main Building,
Literature Department, 2nd Floor
325 Superior Avenue

From Writer to Author: A Workshop with Nancy Christie, Author of Rut-Busting Book for Authors

Writers and aspiring authors learn how to start the buzz and keep it going from pre-publication stage through post-pub and beyond, drawing on advice from authors and book marketing experts.
